COLLEGE of ARMS.

From Saturday December 30. to Tuesday January 2. 1738.

Petersbourg, December 2.

TWO Perſian Ambaſſadours had the 28th paſt their firſt Audience of her Majeſty. The 30th of laſt Month being St. Andrew's Day, Patron of the Order of the Blue Ribbon, all the Foreign Miniſters and Ruſſian Nobility went in the Morning to compliment the Czarina on the Occaſion. Her Majeſty went to Church attended by all the Knights of St. Andrew, dreſſed in the Habit and Collar of the Order; after Divine Service was over they had the Honour to dine with her Majeſty; and at Night there was a Ball. Some Days ago M. Calſo, a Captain in the King of Pruſſia's own Regiment of Grenadiers, arrived here with the Tall Man that was carried away by force ſome Months ago from Courland. He has brought with him two Sets of very fine Coach Horſes, which the King of Pruſſia has ſent as Preſents, one Set to the Czarina, and the other to the Duke of Courland, with a Magnificent Phaeton.

Warſaw, Dec. 24. On the 18th the King and Queen went ſome Miles from hence to a Hunting of the wild Boar, and their Majeſties returned in the Evening. The next Day the King nominated the Cardinal Biſhop of Cracow to the Archbiſhoprick of Gneſna, by which his Eminence became Primate of Poland; proper Notification of which was diſpatched to Rome, in order to have the Pope's Confirmation: And his Eminence received the Compliments of all Perſons of Diſtinction at the Court, upon the King's having conferr'd on him the firſt Dignity of the Kingdom next to the Crown. On the 20th this Prelate had Audience of their Poliſh Majeſties, to return his Thanks, and that Day dined at Court. Count Sedlnicki, Palatine of Podlachia, being nominated Marſhal of the Court to the Queen, has begun to act in that Office, which became vacant ſome Months ago by the Death of the Caſtellan of Radom Dunin. M. Poninski Referendary of the Crown having been nominated Palatine of Poſnania, has taken the uſual Oath in that Quality to the King; and his Son, the Staroſt of Petrikow, is made Chamberlain to the King. Baron Keyſerling Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the Czarina, having obtain'd Leave from his Court to repair thither, ſet out on the 22d. Count Flemming great Maſter of the Artillery of Lithuania, has taken the Opportunity of accompanying him, to ſee the Court of Ruſſia.

Berlin, Dec. 27, N. S. M. Viebahn and Major General Kalkenſtein, two of his Pruſſian Majeſties Commiſſiaries at the Conferences held at Baruth, who had been here for a ſhort Time, returned a few Days ago to that Place; and it is ſaid, that the Buſineſs of the Cartel, and ſome Diſputes about Commerce, between this Court and that of Dreſden, will be ſoon ſettled to the Satisfaction of both Parties. His Pruſſian Majeſty is ſtill confined to his Chamber with the Gout.

Whitehall, December 29, 1738.

Whereas at a Seſſions of Oyer and Terminer, held for the Juriſdiction of the Admiralty of England, on Friday the 10th Day of November laſt at the Old Bailey, James Buchanan was convicted of a Murder committed upon the High Seas, and was ordered to be Executed for the ſame on Wedneſday the 20th Day of this Inſtant December, at Execution Dock in Wapping; but before the ſaid James Buchanan had hung the uſual Time, ſome evil-diſpoſed Perſons cut him down, and carried him away; and there being Reaſon to believe that the ſaid James Buchanan was not fully executed, as the Law requires, but is now living; For the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the reſcuing of the ſaid James Buchanan, His Majeſty is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Perſon or Perſons who actually cut the ſaid James Buchanan down) who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted hereof.

HOLLES NEW ASTLE.

Admiralty Office, 29 December, 1738.

And for the further diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Reſcue; The Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty are pleaſed to promiſe
